

COURSE TITLE: VETERINARY PHARMACY

DESCRIPTION This course will provide Instruction on the uses and indications of medications used in the treatment of diseases affecting animal patients.

COURSE GOALS
1.	To explain restrictions applicable to veterinary medicine.
2.	To compare and contrast common disease states.
3.	To communicate with animal owners.

ACTIVE LEARNING

METHODS: Group discussions, techniques from Just-In-Time Teaching, question and answer sessions, responsive readings, e-mail and online exams to assess the student's ability to meet the goals of the course.

GRADING:

Examination #1	30%
Examination #2	30%
Active learning	20%
Attitude and Discussions	20%

Grading policy can be accessed at

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

INSTRUCTOR: Elaine Blythe, PharmD
Adjunct, University of Florida College of Pharmacy
Office; 402-551-6017

eblythe@ufl.edu

Office hours are conducted online at times convenient for instructor and student.

TEXT(S): None, all materials available via online course web site

- TOPICS: Common endocrine, neurological and musculoskeletal diseases affecting small animals will be presented and discussed.
- ATTENDENCE: Students who anticipate extended off-line absence or inability to complete required course elements should immediately contact the instructor at the email or phone listed above.
- ACCOMMODATION: Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.